Helped by Mother Nature.
Among the beggar children of southern Italy there is rarely one who looks ill-fed. Though food is scarce, the sunshine and their life in the open air do much toward nourishing their bodies.—Argus.

Will See It Through.
"A good man," said Uncle Eben, "won't fight unless he has to. And if he's a sho' nuff good man he'll stick to it 'till he's 'fraid to fight."—Argus.

Business First.
The sleight-of-hand performer was doing wonderful stunts on the stage. He had handled cards with ease and dexterity. "Now," will any one in the audience lend me a ten-dollar gold piece?" he asked. And the pawnbroker in the fourth row at once replied: "Oa vat?"

SOLD COOK BOOKS.
Hospital Auxiliary Also Raised Funds by Lunch and Food Sale.

The Ladies' auxiliary of St. Joseph's hospital held a well attended and successful food sale at the nurses' home Friday afternoon, beginning at 3.30. Many tasty and dainty articles were for sale, and cook books published by the auxiliary were also disposed of. A luncheon of strawberry short-cake, fruit salad, sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee was served during the afternoon and evening. The tables were in charge of the following members: Mrs. R. N. Hyde, Mrs. William Jenkins, Mrs. James Aspinwall, Mrs. William A. Corallo, Mrs. A. N. Vaughn, Mrs. John O'Neill, Mrs. Arthur Racicot, Miss Rose Cryne and Mrs. James Hurley.

Entertained at Cards.
Mrs. May Lincoln and Mrs. A. W. Gates entertained at bridge Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gates on Spring street. Five tables were in play. Light refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Mothers' Club Showers Mrs. Hill.
The Mothers' club of St. Paul's church held a shower for Mrs. Hill at the parish house Thursday afternoon. There were about forty members present. The afternoon passed very pleasantly with games and refreshments. The committee in charge included Mrs. Fannie Dixon Welch, chairman; Mrs. Welles Wilcox, Mrs. Leon Larned, Mrs. Samuel Vergason, Mrs. Joseph Hillhouse and Mrs. Fred Burnett. Mrs. Welch had charge of the refreshments.

The matter of organization at the next regular meeting which will take place the first Thursday in September, was discussed, and the following membership committee appointed to bring up the membership before that time: Mrs. Harvey Hodges, Mrs. Hardman and Mrs. Frank Lincoln.

Decide on Food Sale.
At a special meeting of the committee of the Woman's guild of St. Paul's church held this week, it was voted not to have a parish supper this month, but to hold a food sale in the parish house. Those who were present were Mrs. Joseph Coburn, chairman; Mrs. Leon Larned, Mrs. Samuel Vergason, Mrs. Fred Burnett, Miss Ida Davidson and Mrs. John Bradshaw.

On New York Visit.

says that the press notices to the effect that relatives of Mrs. Harry Clark living in this city thought it possible that she might be identified with the torso of the murdered woman found on the shore of Yellow Mill pond a fortnight ago, is without foundation, so far as he knows. He knows of no relatives of Mrs. Clark in Willimantic and does not know just how the story started.

AUTOMOBILE STRIKES CHILDREN

Car Being Backed Out by Kenneth Harroun Got Beyond Control.

Elizabeth, the eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Case of 90 Windham street, and Gladys, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Road of 1 Windham street, were injured, the former badly, by being struck by an automobile near the Windham street entrance to the Jordan Auto company's garage Thursday evening. The children were playing on the sidewalk near the Road home, when Kenneth Harroun, aged 17, of 124 E. Main street, being struck by a car owned by the Jordan Auto company, and a W. H. S. student, backed a car out of the garage, and losing control in some manner, backed up onto the sidewalk where the children were playing and struck them. One wheel of the car passed over the Case child's left leg, which was fractured in three places. The Road girl was only bruised. The car belonged to Maurice Jordan, Young Harroun has been ordered to appear in the police court this morning, and it is stated he has no driver's license.

DEGENERATE JAILED.

Robert H. Faulkner Pleaded That He Was Intoxicated.

Robert H. Faulkner was before the police court Friday morning, charged with indecent assault upon three children whose ages range from seven to ten years. Faulkner, a 34 year old man, was charged with indecent assault upon three children whose ages range from seven to ten years. Faulkner, a 34 year old man, was charged with indecent assault upon three children whose ages range from seven to ten years. Faulkner, a 34 year old man, was charged with indecent assault upon three children whose ages range from seven to ten years.

Petition in Bankruptcy.

Fortunato Giordano, who until recently conducted a shoe store at 949 Main street, has filed a petition in bankruptcy through his attorney, P. J. Deane, of the law firm of Deane & Deane, of 124 E. Main street. A hearing will be held in the matter on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The petition alleges that the debtor is unable to pay his debts as they become due, and that he is insolvent. The petition also alleges that the debtor has incurred debts of $1,242.40 and assets of $650. A hearing will be held in the matter on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

WEDDING.

Hemingway—Cochrane.

Miss Helen N. Cochrane of this city and Arthur S. Hemingway of New Haven were married last Saturday in South Norwalk at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. S. P. Fairbanks. After a short wedding trip to New York, they will reside in South Norwalk.

Game at Stafford Springs.

The members of the Windham High school baseball team, accompanied by Principal E. A. Case and Prof. Reynolds, journeyed to Stafford Springs Friday afternoon to play the high school nine there. The trip was made in a car and a truck. The team was minus the services of Catcher and Captain Donohue, who is laid up with water on the knee and a sprained wrist, and of Second Baseman Harroun, but hoped to give a good account of themselves.

Everett Payson Thrown from Wagon.

A horse owned and driven by Everett Payson of Lebanon, engineer at Willimantic Machine company's shop, took fright at a house on Mountain street on the way to this city Friday morning, and bolted, overturning the wagon and throwing Mr. Payson out and into a pile of brush. A severely bruised left arm was the extent of his injuries. The horse ran back to the city to the barn on Union street where it was kept days by its owner.

Burial to Be in Providence.

The body of Jane Ann Cabbins of Windham was taken to Providence, R. I., on the 5:22 train Friday morning. The funeral will be held in that city this afternoon. Burial will be in the North End cemetery in Providence.

In a Few Words.

Attorneys in the case of Lyman vs. Lyman, which was to have been tried next Tuesday, have received word that the trial has been postponed until Tuesday, June 15th, in this city. A large motor van owned by Brown, Thompson & Co. of Hartford, and which was loaded with a consignment of furniture for this city, broke down near the corner of Church street and Maple avenue about half past one Friday afternoon. A broken driving shaft was the cause of the accident.

The Work of Laying the New Block paving on Main street from Union street to the railroad has been delayed, as it is necessary to wait for the re-location of the trolley tracks before putting down the pavement, and the trolley company is behind as a shipment of fish plates for the tracks has not yet arrived. Work will progress rapidly when these arrive.

LACK OF ADEQUATE NAVAL EQUIPMENT

Dilated Upon by Rear Admiral Fiske at Naval Academy Alumni Dinner.

Annapolis, Md., June 3.—Rear Admiral Fiske, who attracted widespread attention by his statements to the house naval committee on the lack of adequate naval equipment, and who later retired from the office of aide for operations in the navy department, spoke at length on the unpreparedness of the fleet here tonight at the naval academy alumni dinner. Admiral Fiske spoke of the needs of the navy and the necessity of making laymen realize this.

Portraits of Admiral Jellicoe have had a larger sale than those of any other war celebrity.
